

Help Shape the Future of LeRay

Planning Board and Zoning Board of Appeals Vacancies

The Town of LeRay is seeking individuals interested in serving on the Planning Board and the Zoning Board of Appeals. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age. Prior experience is not required, but applicants should be willing to review meeting materials, attend meetings, and participate in local land use and zoning review.

Current Vacancies

Board	Primary Role	Typical Meeting Schedule
Planning Board	Reviews land use matters such as subdivision, site plan, and other planning-related applications referred to the Board.	Generally meets monthly when applications or agenda items are scheduled. Meetings are held in the evening at the Town of LeRay Municipal Building.
Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA)	Reviews zoning appeals, interpretations, and variance requests when an applicant seeks relief from or clarification of zoning requirements.	Meets as needed when ZBA applications are filed. Meetings are held in the evening at the Town of LeRay Municipal Building.

Meeting Expectations

Meetings are held at the Town of LeRay Municipal Building, 8650 LeRay Street, Evans Mills, New York.

The ZBA meets as needed with meeting dates typically scheduled for the first Wednesday of the month. The Planning Board meets monthly on the first Thursday of the month.

Members are expected to attend scheduled meetings, review materials in advance, participate in discussion, and complete any required training. Meeting notices and agendas are posted by the Town as applicable.

How to Express Interest

Interested individuals may contact Planning Board Chairperson Deborah Biondolillo via email at planningboardchair@townofleray.org or submit a letter of interest to:
